EDITOR'S NOTE

Welcome to The Lincoln Visitor, Lincoln's premier dining and entertainment magazine. Inside you will find everything you will need to make your visit to Lincoln an exciting and enjoyable experience.

The merging of the spirit of a fast growing city with the serenity of the countryside makes Lincoln an ideal place for a wide range of indoor and outdoor activities. The city offers fine dining, entertainment, shopping outlets, art galleries, museums, sports centers, parks, golf courses and trails.

In the pages that follow, you will find articles featuring Lincoln's hot spots, restaurant spotlights, menus, area attractions, the hottest in nightlife activities and locator maps to guide you during your visit.

David Welch, the founder/owner/author of The Lincoln Visitor decided to make Lincoln his home after having traveled around the world and living in several countries. David has lived in Lincoln for 15 years now and has been in the field of graphic design for over 10 years. He has compiled this magazine to bring the best of Lincoln to visitors on business trips as well as those on leisurely trips.

Editorial submissions are welcome. If you have a favorite stomping ground in Lincoln to share, please write to Lincoln.Visitor@yahoo.com or mail to The Lincoln Visitor, 2430 U St., #2, Lincoln NE, 68503.

WELCOME TO NIGHTLIFE DOWNTOWN

BY JASMINDA PIONTEK

To the outsider downtown Lincoln, Nebraska may not look like a very hopping place, unless you happen to be out Thursday through Sunday nights that is. As the State Capitol and home to the University of Nebraska, our citizens are as ethnically, educationally, and politically diverse as they come. No place represents this better than our dear downtown at night. From the Rococo to Harry's Wonder Bar, there is something offered for everyone. Theater, movies, bars, clubs, and restaurants all offer a night of unforgettable entertainment.

While the crowds and police presence may seem a bit overwhelming for most, Lincoln is quite possibly the friendliest town you'll ever see. Yes, to the outsider, closing time downtown on a weekend may look somewhat reflective of a riot. I assure you it's anything but. Lincoln Police Department (LPD) has been providing weekend service to the downtown area for years, and while this may be hard for someone new to understand, this is just a known and accepted fact to long-term residents. Not to mention a welcoming break for many of the officers. I've known quite a few to wander into an establishment and strike up a conversation just for the sake of it. You can tell that they truly do love their jobs. Lincoln is a passive town, and very rarely are those officers called into action.

Two other highlights of this unique area are actually beloved hot spots for after hours locals. Ali Babba Gyro's, and Gourmet Grill (known as Georges to Lincoln-folks) have been serving up authentic Greek cuisine for as long as I can remember. These two have been in never ending constant competition with each other for eons, and their proximity to one another is something you would ONLY find in Lincoln, Nebraska. Gourmet Grill is located on the corner of 14th and O Streets, Ali Baba's is located directly behind Georges and serves up food for Duffy's Tavern. You think I'm kidding, but I'm not. With competition so close, and nearly identical menus, you'd think that one of these little restaurants would fail. But they have become such an important part of Lincoln's history and culture that they thrive. You have the Georges folks, and the Ali Baba folks, personally I like them both.

Sundays are usually a day of rest, and in most cities the size of ours there is nothing to do on a Sunday night. Sunday nights, however, shine in Lincoln. There is one, yes.. I said one, bar that pulls them all in on Sunday nights. That recognition goes to the Bricktop (1427 O Street). This club has created a bit of a phenomenon in the downtown area, and while other bars have tried to pull in a decent Sunday night crowd, none have surpassed the gang that usually shows up at this establishment. There have been nights where the line to get into the place wrap around the block.

What's all the hubbub? 80's night baby. Every Sunday a local DJ spins the best of 80's pop, and I do mean the best. All the hits that we all know and loved in our younger years. The dance floor fills fast, so if you're planning on checking it out I'd suggest going before 11pm.

Yes, this is my downtown, and if you're new to Lincoln, I'd like to welcome you to it. If you're already a bonified Lincolnite then you know how very special our town is. Either way you're sure to find something that fits your personality Downtown, and maybe even a story to go along with it. TLV

Thank you for making The Zoo Bar Lincoln's premier blues nightspot.

Get Your Groove On in Lincoln Nebraska

It's not all square dancing and barn raising 'round these parts. Contrary to popular cinematic belief the Midwest can actually be a pretty hoppin' place to visit. While you won't find Ma, Pa, and Curly Joe kicking back, chewing straw, and playing the banjo, we do have offerings of country, bluegrass, and rock-a-billy. Oh, but that's not all... Nebraska hosts a WIDE variety of musical talents. Rap, R&B, Blues, Metal, Punk, Pop, Alternative, and DJ's galore. You name it, we've got it! If it's a club you're after...well Slim...we've got those too.

To help you along, we've compiled a list of some of the more popular booty shakin' haunts in town, along with a brief description and contact information. We're all friendly folks this side of the Missorah', so don't be shy about calling to double check times, specials, and specific directions if you need them.

It's GAME DAY... Go BIG RED!

There is no other city in the world that erupts like Lincoln, Nebraska on game day! Now, we support the Huskers in all sporting aspects, but visit Lincoln during football season and you're sure to leave with a story worth telling for generations to come. We LOVE our football team!

The famous "Sea of Red" forms in the streets before every home game, migrating to various tailgating hot spots and hubs to shout the words "Go Big Red" and await the answering call back "GO - BIG - RED"! It is our pep-rallying cry, the public's way of getting pumped before the game in the hopes of bringing home another national title.

If you are not familiar with the practices of game day, the etiquette, and the great places to hang out before kick off it can be quite confusing.

To really get into the Husker spirit visit Grandmothers Restaurant at 6940 A Street. This establishment has been hosting the Nebraska Pep Band every Friday night before a home game for the last 10 years. The band starts up at 10 pm and plays two 20 minute sets. Arrive early for a good seat and enjoy the nightly specials as you get pumped for the next day's game.

The Sidetrack Tavern, located downtown at 935 O Street, has been rattling the ribs of Husker fans for years. Be prepared for raunchy songs, good natured fun, and a whole slew of entertaining follies as you head down to Memorial Stadium. Drinks are more than ready here.

Now if it's a gigantic crowd, music, and beer garden you seek, The Dock at the Embassy suites, located just blocks from the stadium @ 1040 P Street, is certainly the place to be. This is rally town at its best. Prepare to see loyal fans and visiting team supporters poking fun at each other as bands play live music in the background.

The Haymarket, our historical downtown district, located west of 9th Street and running north to south from about N to R Streets, harbors a massive selection of entertainment before and after the game. Visit Buzzard Billy's, Brewskys, or Docs Place for drinks, good times, and a snack on the loading docks before continuing on your way. The Mill, located on the corner of 8th and P Streets caters to those seeking a tasteful nip of caffeine vs. the common drive for barley based drinks.

Barry's, located @ 235 N. 9th Street, a measly 4 blocks from the stadium, hosts a great crowd of loyal Husker Fans. Fight songs from either team have been known to break out here, making it one of the more interesting places to visit.

Sandy's, Brothers Bar and Grill, The Watering Hole, The Brass Rail, and Iguanas are all located in the heart of downtown on O Street. These hubs have remained game day favorites and usually hit their peak after the game has ended. Prepare to stand in line, these establishments fill up quick as the "where to go, what to do" savvy crowds gather to discuss the recent triumph or loss of their beloved team.

While the excitement of watching our wonderful team live in the stadium is by far an experience matched by none, it is not always for everyone.

Beacon Hills Restaurant offers casual dining specializing in homemade American cuisine. Our House signature items include succulent Herb-Coated Prime Rib, and Beacon Hills Crab Cakes, along with all the local favorites. In addition, we offer desserts such as Old-Fashioned Bread Pudding baked fresh for you every day. A full service bar and an excellent wine selection are also available to complement your meal.

Our story begins making Crab Cakes. We finally settled on the Maryland recipe from a long-forgotten cookbook. Nothing fancy, just extraordinary. Next we added The Salad We Had At Gail's House and Crab Rangoons, the kind you can fall in love with. Being all Nebraskans of course, Corn-fed Beef, Chicken Pot Pie and Cole Slaw were added to our fare. We created an eclectic array of dishes, something to please everyone's taste buds, from Flatbread Pizzas to Batter Dipped Salmon. When we tested our desserts it was an unanimous hurrah! for Elizabeth's Devil Decadent Cake. So, please enjoy your meal with us. We want you to return for many more happy occasions. Recipes from the kitchen of Dave...

Tandoori Chicken

[Indian BBQ Chicken]

By DAVE WELCH

While designing the Lincoln Visitor I decided that it would be nice to share with everyone some of my favorite recipes. Because of my travels throughout far east and middle east, I tend to have a varying and eclectic taste in foods. Although I lean more towards the spicier variations of the pallet, this recipe is only mildly-spicy. So get out your apron, clean off the counter and let's get ready to cook!

Having traveled to Malaysia (and having been married to a Malaysian-Indian), I've had the pleasure of sampling a variation of Tandoori Chicken. This variation of Tandoori Chicken thus may be slightly different than others you may have tried.

Tandoori Chicken : Indian Clay-oven Chicken is an all-time favorite of mine.

In Malaysia tandoori chicken is served 24 hr at 24 hr Mamak eateries [local Indian restaurants]. Great for those late-night munchies! Mildly-spiced spring chicken quarters are baked to tender succulence in a tandoor - a traditional Indian clay oven. A spicy mint sauce is usually served on the side with plain or garlic Naan bread.

(Although we do not have a tandoori clay oven we will be using the stove top and oven)

INGREDIENTS :

- 2 ½ lb chicken leg quarters, skinless
- 1-2 tbsp ghee [clarified butter]
- 2-3 drops of red food coloring [optional]
- 2 lemons, cut into wedges
- a few sprigs of fresh coriander [cilantro], chopped for garnishing

- ½ tsp salt
- ½ tsp fresh ground pepper
- 2 cups yoghurt
- ½ cup vinegar
- 1 inch ginger, peeled
- 1 large onion, quartered
- 1 tsp coriander seeds
- 1 tsp garam masala [spice mix]
- 4 tbsp or to taste chili powder
- ½ tsp paprika
- 1 lime, juiced

[Items in red are to be ground or blended]

Ingredients for Garam Masala :

- 4 tbsp cumin seeds
- 4 tbsp coriander seeds
- 1 tbsp cardamom seeds
- 2 cinnamon sticks ,crushed
- 1 tbsp black peppercorns
- 2 tsp whole cloves

To Prepare Garam Masala:

- Dry roast all ingredients in a heavy skillet over low heat, stirring continuously until spices emit a 'toasty' aroma, about 3 mins
- Let cool, then using a mortar & pestle or spice mill, grind to a fine powder

- Store in an airtight jar

To Prepare Chicken:

- Using a mortar & pestle or blender, grind coriander seeds, ginger, onion, Garam Masala, chili powder, paprika, yoghurt, vinegar, lime juice, salt and pepper into a smooth paste
- Add red food coloring, mix well
- Make shallow cuts on chicken, and coat well with the ground paste
- Cover, marinate at least 4 hrs - best if marinated 1-2 days in the fridge
- Preheat oven to 350°F, cook chicken until well done, about 35 mins, basting often with the clarified butter [ghee]
- Garnish with chopped coriander leaves and lemon wedges
- Serve with bread, Roti or Pita bread

Cook's Note : 'Garam' is the Indian-Hindi word for warm or hot and 'Masala' is the Indian-Hindi word for spices or spice mixture. There are many variations of Garam Masala - each using different combinations of spices for different types of dishes. The above is a basic Garam Masala recipe for meat dishes.

KARAOKE CRAZY!

Legends Bar & Grill

It's a phenomenon that's been circling the globe for two decades. The history of Karaoke actually comes from the eastern part of the world. Legend has it that while awaiting the arrival of a certain performer to appear, a snack bar owner in Kobe, Japan put in some tapes and asked his loyal patrons if they would like to come up and sing. It's been spreading like wild-fire ever since.

The formal definition of Karaoke breaks down to Kara, meaning empty; and Oke, meaning orchestra. Participants choose a song of their liking and provide the vocals while music is played in the background. Karaoke has made giant strides since the days of yore. Transforming itself from cassette tapes and lyric sheets to CDs and from CDs to digital music, video graphics, and on-screen text prompts, making the whole experience unique unto itself.

No one knows the evolution of Karaoke better than local KJ (Karaoke Jockey) Dallas. He has been supplying entertainment in this area for over 20 years. After researching various types of equipment Dallas has assembled one of the best hand picked Karaoke sets found in Lincoln, allowing him to top the charts with Karaoke fans city wide. Providing a never ending supply of song choices and changing pitch to match each individual singer, Dallas works more like a personal production man. Perhaps that's why he has named his business

"You Are The Show", since he truly does believe it is the Karaoke singer who makes the show worth while. Dallas can be seen every Saturday night at Grandmothers Lounge 6940 A St. starting at 9pm, and Friday nights at Down the Hatch 5601 NW 1st. beginning at 8:30pm. He is certainly worth checking out.

Lincoln houses a multitude of establishments offering an amateur night of fame. Ron's pub, 130th and O Street, has Karaoke every Wednesday, Friday, and Sunday. Duffy's Tavern on 13th and O Street packs the house with a live Karaoke band every Thursday night, giving customers a unique live rock experience. Bennigan's Grill & Tavern, 8701 Andermatt Dr., hosts Karaoke Thursdays starting at about 9:30pm, Legends bar and Grill, 8300 Northwoods, holds down the Friday night scene with Karaoke beginning at 9pm, and Slapshotz Bar & Grill busts a vocal move every Thursday and Saturday also beginning at 9pm.

Now if you prefer to perform your own music verses pre-recorded Karaoke, Lincoln has many establishments offering open mic nights as well. To name just a few, Duggan's Pub 440 S. 11th Street, holds open mic nights every Wednesday and Thursday for those with their own equipment, and Mondays for those wishing to play along with the house band. The stage is large enough for the whole garage band crew yet classically fitting enough for the lone individual.

Meadowlark Coffee House on 16th and South Street also have open mic night for those wishing to show off their musical talents. The stage is adaptable for more than one person and a piano is on hand for those gifted in the finer arts. Poetry, short stories, and a variety of other skills can be witnessed here, which makes for a very interesting show.

No matter what your personal preference may be, the act of singing in front of a crowd can be one of the most spontaneously rewarding adventures there are. I strongly suggest if you've been too shy to try it before, that you do it at least once in your life. You won't be disappointed, and chances are, after a single go of it, you'll be raring for more. TLV

A Taste of the Orient

It was 1998 and a spur of the moment road trip had landed myself, along with several friends, in the heart of San Francisco. Thrilled to be out of the heartland, we began to explore this enormous city. Its vastness was overwhelming, calling us to investigate every corner, every district, until we were sure we had seen it all. Nothing however, compared to China Town.

The sights, the smells, the sounds, all unique and unforgettable. Markets displaying fresh chickens, fish, spices, and trinkets galore. Restaurants expelling the most alluring smells known to mankind beckoned our entry and satisfied our pallets.

It was a trip to remember, and a flavor to be matched. Cravings of oriental food are one of the most common of all, just the thought is enough to make my mouth water and my tummy growl.

While Lincoln may not harbor a China Town, we do have one of the most diverse displays of oriental cuisine that the heartland has to offer.

So how do you know where to go if you are not familiar with our beautiful town?

Below is just a sampling of what we have to offer. As I said before, we may not have a China Town of our own, but you'll find plenty of options to satisfy that craving and enjoy a little taste of the Orient in Lincoln, Nebraska. Enjoy!

The tandoor, a vase-shaped clay oven used almost exclusively in the Punjab area divided between India and Pakistan, is one of the most fascinating cooking tools used in the world. These tall, round ovens are either sunk into the ground or kept above ground and packed in plaster for insulation. A charcoal fire is built at the bottom of the oven. Wasabi!

A Unique Experience In International Cuisine

What is wasabi?

Literally, "wasabi" is the Japanese word for horseradish. Japanese horseradish is naturally a medium green color with a strong, distinctive flavor. Wasabi has been traditionally enjoyed with sashimi and sushi, but now is being utilized for many different foods around the world.

Wasabi is commonly available in powder form; simply mixing with water activates the unique "spicy" characteristics of this special herb.

Wasabi Robbie working diligently to bring the best sushi to Lincoln

What is Wasabi! International Grille & Banzai Bar?

Wasabi! opened April 11, 2000 as a casual dining restaurant in downtown Lincoln, Nebraska. Here in Mid-America, Wasabi! offers Japanese 'Kaiseki' and 'Izakaya' cuisine in addition to sushi and sashimi. The Banzai Bar offers a variety of international beers, sake, sake cocktails, wines, and tropical specialty drinks.

Wasabi! is owned and operated by Rob Burns with an international supporting staff. A native of Omaha, Robbie first visited Shizuoka, Japan (Omaha's Sister City) in 1983 as a result of the connection between Shizuoka University and the University of Nebraska - Omaha. A part-time job at a local sashimi shop named 'Ishikawa' near Shizuoka University paved the road leading to Wasabi!.

Careers in landscaping and international trade development since 1983 have made it possible for Wasabi Robbie to travel to Japan and other parts of Asia numerous times. Here at Wasabi!, he has tried to bring together some of the best parts of Japanese traditional and modern cuisine.

We hope you enjoy. Kampai! TLV

Mexican Sensation

BY JASMINDA PIONTEK

Walk down any local business district in Lincoln, Nebraska and you're sure to find at least one restaurant beckoning a call. The smells, the flavors, the colors, and even the signs all lure the hungry wanderer inside. Each and every one counting on the fact that you have a rumble in your tummy, and a craving on your mind.

Lincoln has one of the most diverse menus around. A hungry Lincolnite can choose from American, Italian, Thai, Chinese, and Japanese, to mention just a few, and oh, let's not forget Mexican!

Just typing that word makes my mouth water. It seems that the taste for that scrumptious south of the boarder cuisine has gained in popularity. From burritos the size of your head, to tacos the size of your leg, we have graciously indulged our spicy tooth and asked for more. If it's an authentic Mexican atmosphere you crave, La Paz Mexican Restaurant (321 N. Cotner Blvd.) is the place for you. Walking through the front doors puts you right into the heart of Mexico. With stuccoed arches, a wide variety cacti and plants, and authentic trinkets here and there, La Paz offers a sense of homey boarder town grace. The building is divided into two sections, the bar/lounge area if you feel like stopping in for a drink, and the dining area if you've come looking for a meal. Yes, this little Mexican restaurant been filling the void in our pallets for 16 years and running. Owned by the Holm family, La Paz has become a landmark of sorts, surviving the rise and fall of many quick fix chains. Voted "Best Mexican in Lincoln" 5 years in a row, this restaurant has held its ground. La Paz offers an extensive menu list, covering everything from salads to chimichangas, what's more is that each and every item offered on the menu is made from scratch. Co-owner Julie Burroughs-Holm credits the fine food and wonderful staff as two of the main reasons customers keep coming back. Whether it be Mexican, American, or a mix of both, La Paz Mexican Restaurant has it all at a price everyone can afford. Customers are always greeted with a complimentary bowl of chips and homemade salsa, specials are offered daily for lunch and evening meals, and the margaritas are always ready. Most menu items come with your choice of beef or chicken, and are usually coupled with a nice side of beans and rice. What's that? You say you don't eat meat? Well, my vegetarian friend, fear not... the Holm family has you covered. La Paz also offers an extensive vegetarian menu as well as a menu list meant to fit the needs of even the littlest taste buds. Whether it's a night out on the town with your friends, or a nice family outing, La Paz is able to cater to the individual, and promises not to disappoint. When asked what the most rewarding aspect of being in the restaurant business was, Ms. Burroughs-Holm cited the clientele. If it weren't for all the wonderful people who enjoy the food, it simply would not be worth it. So the next time your tummy gives a rumble, and someone asks "So, what do you feel like eating?" give La Paz a shot, and tell 'em The Lincoln Visitor sent ya! TLV

For the Love of Sandwiches... and More

They come in all shapes, sizes, and tastes. For most of us, the love affair starts off in toddler-dome with the classic PB & J. Whether you preferred crusted or non, your peanut butter mixed on the same slice as the jelly, or prepared on individual slices before being merged, it's a childhood favorite we all share.

With age comes the need for a more sophisticated sandwich. Teenage years bring on a new world of bologna, salami, and various other sliced lunch meats. Cheeses, mustard, and mayo replace the PB & J on our breads and we begin to experiment with our taste buds. Grilled cheese becomes a feat we can accomplish on our own, and being at the age of curiosity, many of us question what other sorts of sandwich combinations can be grilled. Tuna, peanut butter and banana, cheese and bologna, and yes... even the classic PB & J all found their way into my frying pan during my college aged years. Finally you grow into adulthood and decide that you'd really just rather have someone else do the job for you.

It used to be that when the craving came around, there was only one true national staple to be found. While the classic sub does hold it's weight and carries a very special place in my heart, there are moments when my pallet desires diversity and change. Even if it's just a subtle difference in the texture of the bread. Lucky for me, and for you too, Lincoln loves sandwiches.

Dough Boyz Bistro, 56th and Hwy 2, is not your typical sandwich stop. This full service restaurant features 5 very special Italian sandwiches ranging from a hearty meatball sandwich to the portobello mushroom sandwich with spinach onions and cheese. Sure to tend to that Italian craving.

Sub City, 48th and Old Cheney Rd., offers divine deli style subs. This is the substitute for the sub blues and a must see place if you've grown tired of the same old same old. Kick back and enjoy!

Now suppose you have that "gotta get a sammich" craving, but don't really feel like filling up on a whole bunch of bread. Well, thanks to creative thinking, we now have the Pita.

Oh, but it's not the same Pita that originated in Egypt centuries ago. No, this is the modern Pita. It has been molded, played with, and experimented on, to make some of the most tantalizing sandwich cousins known to man.

The Pita Pit, 1311 O St., offers (at last count anyway) 22 different varieties of Pita sandwiches along with salads, cookies and drinks. What's more is that these guys deliver until 1:30 in the morning! Now that's what I call an easy fix.

Another brilliant addition to the sandwich family is the bagel. Worth mentioning because of its texture. Bagel sandwiches have a rather firm chewy quality that you just can't match with a normal sandwich. Brueggers Bagels, 12th and Q as well as 68th and A offer this tasty variety.

Now let's say you have the urge to get a yummy treat, but none of the above mentioned varieties will calm the craving. I'd say you're in need of a little eastern loving. Phreddy's Hot Philly's, 114 S. 14th St., carries a wide variety of gyros, burgers, and fresh hot phillies. This is a fairly new establishment and they are eager to please.

There's "bar food" & then there's really, really good bar food and some of the best in town can be had at Patty's Pub. Pat says that everyone should try his Rueben, made with slow roasted corned beef made from scratch on site. There are also great daily specials ranging from pizza to prime rib which can all be eaten in a fun atmosphere including pool, darts, keno & more. Once you are full you can have a drink & watch Pat play Solitaire on one of his game machines faster than anyone I've ever seen.

Yes, the sandwich is often times the overlooked underdog of American cuisine. Whether it be subs, Pitas, bagels, hot Philly's, gyro's, or the common PB & J, there are not many who can say the sandwich has not won a special place in their heart. TLV

Ta Keep Ya Busy:

OHhh-Rings........5.69
Da Boyz own sliced sweet onions hand breaded n' lightly dusted w/ our own special blend o' seasonings (yeah rite...we'll never tell) cooked crispy golden and mmm - mmmm D-licious.

Garlic Loaf... Family Style.....3.85
w/cheese .45 add marinara .89
For years Da Boyz (the Doughboyz that is...) have been braggin' up this monster as the best starter ever... now you can tell us... oh yeah, NO SILVERWARE ALLOWED!

Bruschetta Classico.....5.95
C'mon now what kind of a bistro would we be without this mouth wetter of a starter? Xactly!!! So here it is. Italy's classic combo of roma toms, fresh basil/oregano, red onions, garlic, a drizzle of olive oil and the piece de resistance... or whatever...buffalo mozz. Hmmm this one may just be tooooooo good.

Monty'mole.....7.85
One of our founding Boyz creations...Yep it's Monty's own version of guacamole with an Italian twist Avocado, fresh basil, oregano, garlic, red onions and then some served with our "pizza chips".

Artie's Spin.....7.85
A mouthwatering concoction of spinach, artichokes and blended cheeses, 'nuf said. But now... yes of course you get da Boyz chips (or should we say, Chef's version of chips fer dippin, you and I'd call 'em sliced crostini, but you know how Chef's are). Hey and as you dip, you can spin too if ya wanna!

Chicky Pesto Bruschetta.....7.35
A Chicky isn't for shy believe-u-me this baby's got flava/baadaabing!! Diced tomato, minced onion, pesto and real Asiago + Romano Cheeses...

Sorta Fries.....4.45
Alrite we give... gotta have fries, here's yer darn fries. We give these our special Boyz cut and season 'em just rite and serve 'em with a special Nebraska style Italian tomato sauce (it's pronounced Heinz)

Wang Me, Dang Me,
(our WINGS of course...silly!!)

Blazin'.....7.50
Careful of the back draft on these lil' scorchers... unless of course you dare try the HOT... in which case, the back draft is the least of your worries. These boyz is smokin' an come in the "Damon Dozen" (14 pieces) oh of course, both can be served with own ranch dressin'.

DBQ.....7.50
Named for one of the original Boyz and his favorite too... Big D's own signature tangy BBQ (w/a bit of heat... of course) top these babies oh yeah these (and all the wings) come in a "Damon's Dozen" (14 pieces) hey, we never said he could count...These are a must try!!

Pizza Da' Boyz Style

Our crusts are homemade. All pizzas are made fresh to order & sooo... good they take about 30 minutes

Uncle Arty's Spin... 12.95 14.95 16.95
Of course he always has His own take on things. But this time he is onto something, our soon to be infamous thin crust topped w/ spinach / artichokes/ asiago & romano cheese A sprinkle o' mozzarella (cuz we can) and our creamy white sauce. Thanks Arty!!

Da Pesto de Resistance 11.95 13.95 15.95
With a name like that, it better be good rite?! Relax cuz here goes. Start with pesto spread generously on da Boyz thin crust, then top it with fresh ripe tomatoes and finish with cheese... HELLO!!

YOKO..... 16.50 18.50 20.50
Chef named it cuz the fight over the last piece of this baby would make the Fab Four (The Beatles) break up faster than she did.... But don't let that scare ya. Spinach pesto, sun-dried tomatoes, red onion, roasted peppers, feta cheese and shredded chicken. On our thin crust (of course!)

'Nawlin's Chicky or Sausage Pesto.....16.50 18.50 20.50
Stayin' down south just headin' a bit east inspires our famed pesto pizza this time. In the spirit of New Orleans we go with Spicy Cajun chicken, fresh tummies, and of course cheese. Again it's on da Boyz thin crust.

Crandy's Magnifique... 17.50 19.50 21.50
Hey somebody call Ripley's and tell 'em to believe it...the brothers do agree on somethin'. That somethin' is this masterpiece of a pie startin' with Italian sausage, pepperoncinis, pepperoni, sliced beef and finally roasted garlic. Da Boyz give this one two BIG thumbs up!!

DBQ Chicken.....15.50 17.50 19.50
Hmmm... chicken (of course!!) You know it, we had to give Big D his props on a pizza cuz you know how good his wangs are. They run a close second only to this Damonreation. We start with feta and cheddar cheeses, red onions, scallions, diced tomatoes and the masterful ending here is Big D's special DBQ sauce! Pinch me I gotta be dreamin'!!

El Chingon.....13.50 15.50 17.50
Could win the next Nobel Prize here. Our grilled fajita chicken then we blend feta, cheddar, and mozzarella cheeses, top with fresh cilantro, tomatoes, red onions, and corn strips. This muchacho's got some heat!

The Chipotle Orange Shrimp Xperience.....18.25 20.25 22.25
OK take a deep breath...ready? This is Chef's lil' baby and he don't play around. No kiddin', startin', with signature orange chipotle sauce then on to fresh shallots... hold on... then you got mandarin oranges, fresh basil and oregano chiffonade, a pinch of garlic... deep breaths now...fresh cracked pepper and finally buffalo mozzarella, goat cheese and even a pinch of parmesan too. Danger: Not responsible for addictive cravings!!

Margarita.....9.95 11.95 13.95
The classic straight from Rome. It's a white pizza brushed with olive oil, topped with roma tomatoes, diced red onions, chiffonade of basil and our blend of four of Italy's finest cheeses. It's thin, it's crispy, it's crispstastic.

Da Boyz Supreme.....18.25 20.25 22.25
This ones got it all sausage, pepperoni, mushrooms, sliced beef, peppers, onions, olives... you know, everything.

It'sa My Piel!

You build yer own...anyway you like but, it'll cost ya:

Da Green Scene

Dressings: 1000 Island, Blue Cheese, Ranch, Honey Mustard, Strawberry Citrus, Vinaigrette, Caesar, Honey Vinaigrette

The Bobberino.....8.95
Romaine lettuce with Caesar dressin' then peppers, Parmesan, scallions, olives and a bit of herbs. That's just for starters now we saute' some onions, throw in a coupla red peppers, some sun-dried toms, to keep ya guessin' a pile of penne pasta and to o' Vinnie here with some buzzed chicken (marinated in vino, that is). Mister Ka-tearl!

Spinach Yer Salad.....8.95
It's easy to obey mom's orders & get desert a bit later! Fresh spinach, fresh candied pecans, roasted red peppers, bacon, mandarin orange, gorgonzola cheese & special vinaigrette.

Da Caesar.....6.95
You've gotta try our take on this immortal salad! Fresh romaine, our homemade crouts, Parmesan cheese (of course) and finally our special dressin'!! w/chix add.....2.49

Da Bozy D-Lite.....7.50
Romaine, sun dried tummies, roasted peppers, red onions, kalamata olives pine nuts... oh my yes & feta cheese then finished w/ dried currants & tossed in our Honey Vinaigrette. Need we even say it? Soooo Yummy!!! w/chix add 2.00

El Picasso.....8.95
Heh, heh, heh. Just think of Picasso gone Latino. We start with fresh lettuce, grilled fajita chicken, cheddar cheese, fresh tomato, onions, romaine, cilantro, tortilla strips & El Diablo's finishin' touch...the chipotle dressin'!! Estas Caliente, Whey!!

Ornery Shrimp Caesar.....12.95
Tons o' romaine tossed in Ornery Caesar dressin', piled atop a huge bowl; (oops, almost forgot huge bowl...we first pad with fried pasta) then chef gives our shrimp a bit of attitude, then piles on a shipload!! side salad..... 2.49

Sammy's

(and no, not Mr. Davis Jr. either)
Panin-mi... Hey Panin-u Pal
All panin-mi served with Sorta Fries

Gibronni.....7.95
Hey Gibrone! Try this, pepperoni, genoa, sacami, capocola smothered w/ provolone & mozzarella...Sit down! We're not quite done... & finished w/tangy marinara & pepperoncinis...

The Portobello.....7.25
Portobello mushroom, spinach, caramelized onions and goat cheese... ooooooh la la...

The Pollo.....7.95
Chicken, roasted peppers and puree' vegetables

Da Beef.....7.95
Not a Panini but a staple for all my true blue Italians for sure. This is in homage for all the Chef's Chi-town Boyz. Thin sliced rib eye slowly roasted with peppers, onions, tomato sauce and chili seasonings then the goodness is reduced down to it's essence and piled high atop a toasted French roll and if you can handle it smothered with the real deal, melted provolone cheese. As da boyz would say, better than dis... forgettabouttiti!!

Meatballs.....7.50
No Bill Murray's not in it! This star studded cast: our marinara, sautéed onions & peppers, provolone & mozzarella cheese & introducing the star... 4 of our huge homemade meatballs.

...And if we gotsta, here's yer pasta

Uncle Arty's Pasta.....7.95
Good ol' unc, you remember Arty. His other specialties were so good we couldn't resist Start w/ cavatappi & finishes full, cuz pasta blends w/ spinach/ artichokes/ parmesan & alfredo is...way good. add Chix.....2.00

Darth Fredo.....7.95
Yep we start as usual with real cream(yeah the good stuff) but that's when we sway a bit evil. We add roasted pobianos and our "evil" cheese blend (not for the spice-ally challenged) top it with roma tomatoes and serve it with its sidekick of a bread stik. add Chix..... 2.00

ManstaPasta.....6.95
(Pronounced: mon-sta-pasta)
Da Boyz kicked up marinara sauce and more angel hair pasta than you can shake yer fork at... Oh yeah this one's served Damon style... that's all u can eat for those of ya a bit puzzled. add giant meatballs for..... 1.50 ea

I'm such a Scampi.....13.50
No offense but it is. We take corkscrew pasta, diced toms, parmesan, garlic and another shipload of our ornery shrimp, which we spiced off a bit with cilantro, chipotle, and finished in a splash of white wine.

A Penne fer your thoughts.....7.95
Italian cheeses with tomato, basil, garlic and penne pasta start this wonder. Then we toss in some sun-dried tummies, a lil' pesto and Italian cheeses. Shall we bake...we shall, that's right then we bake this dream to perfection. add Chix 2.00

Add to any pasta: Pile o' chicken 2.29
Giant meatballs 2 for 2.49

Dessert?

Oh Heck Yes, You MUST!!!

Da Pizzookie.....5.25
Pronounced: the-piz-oo-keey)
No it's not karaoke...what it is though is quite possible the bestest cure for a sweet tooth EVER!!! We stuff a cookies worth of Chocolate chip or White chocolate Macadamia Nut cookie dough in a small version of a deep dish pie pan, listen up... now we light a match under it...then once it's gooeey we top it with 3 scoops of vanilla bean ice cream and oooooohh mmyyyy gggggooooosssshhhhhh...nuf said!!!!!!!
